Company Profile

“ I may not agree with what you say, but I will defend unto death your right to say it”

(Voltaire, 1694 – 1778)

We are committed to:

- Giving our clients objective, honest and personalized advice, based on their best interests;
- Promptly, diligently and properly executing all mandates given to us by our clients;
- Courageously protecting and upholding our clients' interests and rights, without fear of recrimination for defending an unpopular cause;
- Upholding the highest standards of honesty and integrity in all that we do, and in all of our dealings with clients, colleagues and adversaries.

Company Profile

Mthunzi Chambers is a dynamic law firm that was established for the sole purpose of serving justice.

Mthunzi Chambers strives for service excellence. Our goals are:

- First, to render a service that is personal and individualized. Our clients are assured that, although they may be dealing with a firm, their relationship will always remain personal with the particular professional who is assisting them. To this end, all professional staff members make a point of being available at short notice, and can always be reached by cell phone (except, of course, when engaged in court proceedings).
- Second, to offer a wide spectrum of legal services, so that our clients enjoy the peace of mind that comes with knowing that they can entrust their legal needs to us. Please see the attached schedule of services for more detailed information.

In all our dealings, we are committed to the highest standards of integrity, with an emphasis on seeking the most satisfactory solution for our clients with the greatest speed and efficiency.

As well as working to eliminate the delays so often associated with the legal process, we are also mindful of our clients' convenience, which often translates into our visiting clients' homes or offices, rather than expecting them to call on us.

We are situated in Hazyview and Tembisa, offering a relaxed ambience and secure parking. We are easily accessible from corner R536 Tarentaal Road and Portia Shabangu Drive.

This is a useful process that could avoid lengthy delays and substantial legal costs, as well as the often-irreparable harm that litigation can cause to the relationship between the people involved.

Mediation and conflict management

Mediation is a process in which a mediator assists parties to a dispute in attempting to resolve the dispute by negotiation and, hopefully, agreement.

Mediation is a tool that can be used in an attempt to resolve any dispute – in divorces or custody disputes, disputes in the workplace, commercial disputes and even disputes between members of churches, sports clubs and other voluntary organisations.

If mediation is unsuccessful, the parties may then pursue and defend their cases in court. Mediation is also a useful tool that can be used to resolve and manage conflict where there is not necessarily a dispute or a disagreement about rights and obligations involved.

There is potential for conflict in any relationship or interaction between people. Neighbours, colleagues, employers and employees, supervisors and subordinates, spouses, parents and children, joint owners of property, members of sports and social clubs, church members – whenever there is interaction between humans, there is potential for conflict.

If conflict in these relationships is not managed and resolved, it can result in an irretrievable breakdown in the relationships – often with a ripple effect that affects a number of others.

Mediation can resolve such conflicts and restore peace and harmony in the relationships.
